

Text Message Debate

Choose one source of energy to read about in the Secondary Energy Infobook. Create a debate between two people in the message bubbles. One person is FOR using this source of energy, and the other is AGAINST using it. In each bubble, write one statement to debate the pros and cons of the source of energy. Use data and information from your reading to support each persons' side of the debate.

